My Joy List

Instructions

I want you to write down the things that give you joy each day. Give you pleasure. Relax you. Things that give you a reason to smile. Replenish you. I call this a Joy List. Without regard to whether it is practical or doable in your regular everyday life, just write down freely and without judgment all the things you wish you were able to do for you.